A young man was in love with a beautiful girl. One day she said to him: "It is my birthday tomorrow." "Oh," said the young man, "I'll send you roses, one rose for each year of your life." The same evening he went to a florist's. As he knew that the girl was twenty-two years old, he paid for twenty-two roses and asked the florist to send them to the girl the next day. The florist knew the young man very well as he had often bought flowers in his shop before. When the young man left the shop, the florist thought: "This young man is a very good customer. I think that my price was too high. I'll send more roses to his girl." He did so. The next morning thirty-two roses were sent to the girl.
